WASHOE COUNTY, a political)

)

Before the court is plaintiff's motion for judicial notice¹ (##52, 53). Defendant Washoe County filed a response (#55) and plaintiff replied (#56).

Plaintiff requests that the court take judicial notice of the papers and pleadings on file in the case of Garver v. County of Washoe, et al., Ninth Circuit docket number 11-18015, and Kirkpatrick v. County of Washoe, Ninth Circuit docket number 12-15080. Specifically, plaintiff requests that the court take judicial notice

¹ Plaintiff originally filed the motion for judicial notice at #52, and thereafter filed a notice of corrected image/document at #53. The court refers to the pinpoint citations in #53, as it contains the corrected document.

1 of the cases "as evidence of a pattern of illegal conduct and the 2 absence of any written policies of the County to protect 3 constitutional rights" in situations involving the warrantless removal 4 of a child when there is no reasonable belief the child would be 5 placed in imminent danger of serious bodily injury in the time it 6 would have taken to obtain a warrant. #53 at 2.

7 Defendant Washoe County responded that it "does not necessarily 8 oppose the Court taking judicial notice of the existence of the other 9 cases and the requested documents for the limited purpose of 10 acknowledging their existence." #55 at 5.

11 A district court may take judicial notice of any fact not subject 12 to reasonable dispute in that it is capable of accurate and ready 13 determination by resort to sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably 14 be questioned. FED. R. EVID. 201(b). This includes public records of 15 judicial proceedings that are not subject to reasonable dispute.
16 Harris v. Cty. of Orange, 682 F.3d 1126, 1131-32 (9th Cir. 2012); Lee 17 v. City of Los Angeles, 250 F.3d 668, 689 (9th Cir. 2001). However, 18 "[a]s a general rule, a court may not take judicial notice of 19 proceedings or records in another cause so as to supply, without 20 formal introduction of evidence, facts essential to support a 21 contention in a cause then before it." M/V Am. Queen v. San Diego
22 Marine Const. Corp., 708 F.2d 1483, 1491 (9th Cir. 1983).

23 Therefore, the court concludes it may take judicial notice of the 24 existence of the documents on file in the cases Garver v. County of 25 Washoe, et al, Ninth Circuit docket number 11-18015, and Kirkpatrick 26 v. County of Washoe, Ninth Circuit docket number 12-15080. This 27 includes the documents attached as Exhibits A, B, C, and D to the 28

1 motion for judicial notice.² However, the court may not take judicial 2 notice of the veracity of the arguments and disputed facts contained
3 therein. United States v. S. Cal. Edison Co., 300 F.Supp.2d 964, 974
4 (holding that a court "cannot take judicial notice of another court's 5 determination of the truth of disputed facts"). Accordingly, for the 6 reasons set forth above plaintiff's motion for judicial notice (#52)
7 is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part.

8 IT IS SO ORDERED.

9 DATED: This 29th day of October, 2015.
